

CHILDREN WATCHING OVER CLUB PORKERS WITH ZEALOUS CARE

Visits to the boys and girls who are members of the Wayne County Pig Club for this year, discovers a lively interest in the club work among the members, with a keen competition between them.

Fountain City, Green's Fork, Centerville, and Cambridge are the cities around which most of the club members are grouped, with a scattering around Milton and Richmond.

Gains of over a pound a day are shown by records so far, and pigs belonging to the boys and girls who are club members, are thriving amazingly. Literally "pigs are in clover" in several cases. On almost every farm the pigs are given the run of some pasture, which if it does not afford clover, at least gives exercise and opportunity for green stuff so necessary for healthy growth.

Rations Mixed.
Rations for the pigs are mixed according to careful formulas and administered to the pigs with more care than the children display in their own meals, while the appetites and general disposition of the pigs are the subjects of a zealous solicitude on the part of the youthful owners. Needless to say, the pigs are responding in a way that is surprising the parents as well as the children in many cases.

Although there are some cases of pigs which have not made as high gains in the neighborhood, the owners are not worried, remembering that judging is on the basis of the work rather than simply the size of the finished pig.

It has been emphasized from the start that the object of this contest should be to grow out a good stock hog, rather than a feeding contest, and even if a boy or girl does not have as fine a pig as another, with judging on the basis of the work done as well as on the pig, several stand a good chance for first place which they could not expect if judging was on the basis of the pig alone.

Friendly Rivalry.
There have been several cases of pigs, often in the same family, which have come from different breeders, one making a much better showing than the other at the start, but being outstripped later by the other pig. In such families there is a very intense, though friendly rivalry.

There are 13 families which have more than one child entered, either brothers or brother and sister, and often the sister is showing herself a better hog raiser than her brother.

There are three families which have three members of the pig club, Benjamin, Evelyn and Kenneth, children of Frank Williams of Williamsburg; Anna, Linville and Verda Wisler, children of Benton Wisler, southwest of Centerville, and the children of Charles Weadick on the Green's Fork pike, Edward, and his sisters, Margaret and Loretta, who have a partnership pig, the only one in the club.

BETHEL, Ind., July 12.—Discussion of chinch bug damage and methods of control took most of the time at the regular monthly meeting of the Franklin township farmers' association at Bethel Monday night.

Vocational Teachers to Discuss Problems

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Plans for a four weeks conference of state supervisors, foremen and teacher trainers in vocational education, to be conducted at Dunwoody Institute, Minneapolis, beginning July 16, were announced today by L. S. Hawkins, chief of the division for vocational education of the federal board for vocational education.

The idea of the conference, which will be a new departure in vocational education in the United States, was described by Mr. Hawkins as bringing together the leaders in industry and the educators of the country with a view to reaching a common understanding of the problems of each. More than a hundred persons representing industry and the boards for vocational education of the various states will attend the conference, which will take on many of the aspects of a school.

Mirror signals have been seen with the unaided eye at a distance of 160 miles.

Mr. Presenham and a man giving the name of Tom Denkins, of the same address, were brought to police headquarters by Officers McNally, Bundy and Wright, who made the raid. The contraband liquor was taken about 9:15 a. m.

Mayor Zimmerman was at police headquarters when the men were brought in and they were immediately arraigned. Presenham pleaded guilty to the manufacturing liquor and was fined $100 and sentenced to 30 days in jail. The jail sentence was suspended, however. In the camp in Michigan which she has just visited Dr. Alexander Purdy, of Earlham college, was one of the instructors.

Dinner was served by Mrs. Murray of near New Paris, at the water works plant, east of the city.

Relating the work of the Rotary district in which the Piqua club is located, Mr. Pearman told of the magnificent service rendered crippled children by the district Rotary clubs. He emphasized the need of doing definite boys' work.

Howard Dill and A. J. Harwood were chairmen of the day. The Rev. Walter J. Cronin, pastor of St. Mary's attended the club meeting for the first time since his recent election to the membership.

HOT WEATHER LURES THOUSANDS TO SEEK RELIEF IN SWIMMING

Many people of the city have been and are taking advantage of the Hawkins swimming pool during the present hot spell, according to the manager of the pool. There is practically no time during the day that a person going out to the pool cannot find quite a large number of citizens taking a dip.

The pool opens every morning at 8 o'clock and closes every night at 9:30. It is well equipped with electric lights for the night swimmers. The manager states that if he continues to keep the management of the "old swimmin' hole" several changes will be made and every effort will be made to have improvements made that the public desires.

Free Dips for Children
One of the features in vogue now is a big favorite with the boys and girls of the city. Every Tuesday morning all boys and girls under the age of 12 years are given a free swim. The children are required to furnish their own bathing suits and towels.

Many of the children are taking advantage of the free swim and this morning about 50 to 75 of our future expert swimmers were taking the free dip. The period for the children is from 8 o'clock until 10 o'clock.

During the past three weeks the attendance in the pool has broken all records in its history. The average of the pool has been about 300 swimmers every day. During the last week the number of swimmers has been greater than in any one week since Mr. Parker has had the management of the pool.

Install Showers
A popular improvement is being made at the pool and will be ready for operation within a few days. A shower bath is being installed in both the women's and the men's locker rooms.

Two or more life savers are on the job at all times. The life savers are all qualified men.

The busiest time of the day is from the hours of 4 o'clock in the evening until closing time, the bathers taking their dip after the hot sun has gone down. Many people who have never been in the water before to any great extent are daily attendants at the pool in their efforts to keep cool.

STATE PARDON BOARD TAKES NO ACTION ON UNDERHILL PETITION

No date has been set for hearing of the petition of Alfred Underhill, of this city, for release from Michigan City prison, Attorney General Lesh stated Tuesday.

Mr. Lesh said that he has been informed that a number of telegrams had been sent the state pardon board, some of them urging Underhill's release and others insisting that a pardon be not granted.

Mr. Lesh added that he had received a telegram from Prosecutor Paul Beckett, of Wayne county, Tuesday, asking that no action be taken on the petition. The attorney general said Tuesday afternoon that he had advised the prosecutor by letter that he has taken the matter up with the pardon board and had been assured no action would be taken at this time.

Mr. Lesh stated that he understood a representative of the board investigated the case at the time the petition was filed. After this investigation and in view of the fact that the requests conflicted, the board issued a statement saying that "no hasty action would be taken on the petition."

Meanwhile, it is understood a number of local people have been considering a special trip to Indianapolis to appear before the board to speak in behalf of Underhill.

ASKS $2,500 DAMAGE FOR AUTO ACCIDENT

Charging that Arthur A. Brown operated an automobile in a careless and negligent manner and at a rate of speed estimated at from 60 to 70 miles an hour, causing it to skid from the roadway and upset, Harry Brown asks for $2,500 damages for personal injuries in a suit filed in Wayne circuit court Tuesday afternoon.

According to the complaint, Harry Brown, an employee of the carnival company which was in Richmond last week, was invited to accompany Arthur Brown on an automobile ride last Sunday afternoon. He states that they went south on the Boston pike. Mr. Brown operated the car at a fast rate of speed and was cautioned by the other Mr. Brown and occupants of the car to slow down.

Received Cuts
He failed to do this, it is said, and the car skidded off the road and turned over. Harry Brown alleges his forearm was fractured and that he received numerous other cuts and bruises which will incapacitate him from further work with the shows this season.

Harry Brown states that Arthur Brown was under the influence of liquor and became entirely reckless and negligent in the operation of the car. Arthur Brown, the defendant, is said to be connected with a local hotel.

Eighty pounds of bones were brought here by Dr. Ellis for shipment to Ottawa.

EATON LEADS MIAMI VALLEY IN YIELDS OF TOBACCO; CROPS POOR

A poor tobacco yield for the near parts of the Miami valley is predicted for this year, with the single exception of the Eaton region, where local rains have put tobacco plants ahead of other neighborhoods.

"Tobacco looks very nice around Eaton and New Hope," said Harry Fudge, tobacco buyer of Eaton, Tuesday. "We had good rains after planting, which brought the plants on in good shape, and just yesterday, we had another good rain which spread over a large territory. The outlook is for a pretty good crop just in this region, although I do not know how prospects are elsewhere."

"Tobacco around Eldorado will not make more than about a third of the usual amount," said Frank Blackford, of that region.

"Owing to the dry weather, much acreage that might have been planted to tobacco was never put out, and what was planted late in June or in July doesn't look very prosperous," Mr. Blackford adds. "We had a nice rain Monday, but it was late to help except with the tobacco that had already been put out. What plants are out do not look as thrifty as they should for this season of the year."

Smaller Acreage
"The acreage is only one-third to one-half of normal," said Frank Gazell, tobacco warehouseman of West Alexandria and government crop reporter. "Many farmers are tending five and six acres to harvest tobacco that should be grown on two acres. They are trying to raise all that is still standing because of the poor stand this year. On account of the dry weather here, it was impossible to get all the tobacco set out and much that was set did later."

A poor condition of the tobacco also was reported by Mr. Gazell. "I have estimated the yield of the tobacco at about 60 per cent," he said, "and that is higher by 10 per cent than is allowed by farmers and other authorities here. In addition to the cut in acreage, there will be a further cut due to a poor yield. This condition also holds for Germantown which I visited a week ago. We had a good rain Monday, but we should have cut two weeks ago to get our tobacco out."

You Can Depend Upon the Advertisements

It used to be said, "Oh, that's just an advertisement."

But that isn't true about present-day retailers' advertisements in such papers as The Richmond Palladium. Time is too short to misrepresent in advertisements.

It would be mighty poor business for the Richmond merchant to lead you into his store to seek some special item which he has announced in The Palladium the evening before and to convince you that he had grossly misrepresented that item to you. Of course, once in a while an error does occur, but it is very seldom. You will find advertisers in The Palladium 100% in every particular.

Sentenced For Failure to Observe Court Order

Ralph Barnhardt was brought into court Tuesday morning on a citation for failure to comply with an order of Judge Bond, made in Wayne circuit court on April 12, 1921. At that time he was ordered to pay $5 a week toward the support of his wife and infant child. Gladys Barnhardt, his divorced wife, stated that he had failed to comply with this order.

Judge Bond sentenced Barnhardt to 30 days in jail for contempt of court, to be effective by July 16. If he has paid the amount due his wife by that time, the sentence will be suspended, it is said.

CONFERENCES FAIL TO SETTLE BUILDING WAR

Conferences in regard to the building trades tie-up which were held Monday night failed to break the deadlock which has been on between the Master Builders and the Building Trades council for the last four weeks.

The plumbers decided Monday night to return to work at once for 80 cents an hour, pending a new agreement with the Master Plumbers. This has not been accepted by the Masters yet, but probably will be signed Tuesday night at a conference of both sides. Some delay may be occasioned in regard to working agreements, it is stated.

The carpenters seem to be no nearer a settlement. Both sides seem to be waiting for the other to make the first move.

A meeting of the Master Builders' association will be held Wednesday evening for the purpose of stating their position on the hiring of non-union men, one of the contractors stated Tuesday.

Efforts at a compromise are being made by leaders of the unions. A working agreement for one year is being outlined as a final meeting grounds for the two parties in the tie-up.

GOOD BOOKS WANTED FOR SOLDIERS' USE AT FORT HARRISON

Collection of books for a soldiers' rest room at Camp Benjamin Harrison, which the W. C. T. U. is fitting out, will be started immediately by the Frances E. Willard union of this city, it was decided Monday at a meeting of the union held at the home of Mrs. Maude Winder, 413 North Thirteenth street.

The W. C. T. U., under the direction of the offices at Indianapolis, has been fitting the rest room for the Fort Benjamin Harrison soldiers, it is said. Co-operation from unions over the state is desired in the task.

Books for the rest room may be contributed by any local persons interested, it is stated, whether they are members of the W. C. T. U. or not. Contributors may take the books to the home of Mrs. John R. Jordan, 114 North Sixteenth street, it is announced.

"We shall be glad to have anyone contribute books," a member of the union said Tuesday. "The only stipulations we make are that the books must be works of accepted authors and must be in good condition." The fact was emphasized that only books in good condition were wanted for filling the soldiers' bookshelves. Books to be used must also be good reading and not cheap literature, it was stated.
